

Name: Ahmed Jaafar Aljazzar

(11-12-1981)

Address: Alhufof, Alhassa, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Phone:0135896991

Mobile:0505896839

Email: ajazzar@kfu.edu.sa

Qualifications:

PhD: The Role of Osteocytes in Regulating Bone marrow MSC. The degree was awarded in 2016 from The Royal Veterinary College and supervised by Professor Andrew Pitsillides and Professor Cheryl Scudamore. The thesis was examined by the Professors Simon Rawlinson and Deborah Mason.

Batchelor's and Master's degrees:

MVetSci from University of Edinburgh in 2011

BVM (GPA: 4,09 out of 5) from King Faisal University in 2005

Publications:

Ahmed Aljazzar - Google Scholar

Current Employment and Teaching Experience:

Assistant Professor at King Faisal University at the Pathology Department from March 14, 2017 till now and responsible for teaching:

- Special Pathology.
- General Pathology.
- Post-Mortem examination.

Head of the pathology Department of College of Veterinary Medicine from October 24, 2017 till now. Responsibilities were to:

- Establish strategic plans for development of department and its members.
- Monitor quality of teaching in the department.
- Securing teaching and research requirement and managerial responsibilities.
- Provide supporting and leadership for the staff.
- Create a dynamic and forward looking research environment
- Oversea department labs and equipment
- Resolve teaching and research issues

Vice dean of academic affairs of college of veterinary medicine from 2018 till 2023. I was responsible for:

- Ensuring the running of the programme.
- Provide supporting and leadership for the staff.
- Oversea hiring.
- Create and nurture a climate of curricular innovation.
- Review and resolve curricular and programmatic issues
- Work with faculty and staff to improve method of teaching delivery
- Member of college board
- Monitor student retention and completion rate
- Ensuring student receive of academic advising
- Was a part of a committee that is responsible for forming strategies and action plans to correct the university compilation rate.
- Was a part of committee responsible for updating the college curriculum.
- Was a part of the university Admission committee that responsible for responding the applicants enquires and resolving problems that might arise during the application process

International and location conventions and agreements

I was part of different teams that established:

- International agreement with the university of Inner Mongolia Agricultural University: the agreement involved student and staff exchange, research collaboration and data sharing.
- Local agreement with the Saudi Centre for Disease Prevention and Control: the agreement involved research collaboration about zoonotic and communicable disease, data sharing and establishing new academic programmes.

Conference Papers, seminars and training courses:

1. The role of osteocytes and osteoblasts in haematopoiesis, ECTS, 2013.
  2. Multiple tissue targets revealed in a transgenic mouse model for inducible and specific osteocyte ablation, BRS, 2014
  3. Transgene expression by Dmp1 promoter fragments occurs in various organs, ASBMR, 2016.
  4. Pathology of the camelids Old and anew world camelids seminar, 2021
  5. First Regional Virtual Gross Seminar of Animal Diseases, 2021
- American College of Veterinary pathologist Courses
    1. Descriptive pathology course, 2022
    2. General Pathology course, 2023
    3. Introduction to histopathology course, 2023
  - Leadership and management development courses
    1. Board of Academic Leadership 2024